Have you applied for financial aid for next year through University or private sources? _____

- If so, please list:
- Penn State Financial Aid Office
 - Free Application for Federal Student Aid

- *NOTE:
- You must list all sources of income to be eligible for scholarships related to financial need. Include grants, scholarships, ROTC, military program, employment, etc.
 - YOU MUST apply for Financial Aid through the University Financial Aid Office to be eligible for any scholarship that requires financial need as a component by processing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid and having it reported to PSU. Otherwise, we will not be able to consider you for the scholarships that have a need-based component. Sometimes need is just one of several requirements but you must have applied to be eligible. The University Financial Aid office is in 314 Shields Building. You can complete or file your aid application after you submit the AE Scholarship application, but the sooner you apply, the better your chances relative to any early selections. Please encourage your parents to file their income tax as early as possible to enable you to complete the process early. Application form is available at 314 Shields Building or on the federal government website at www.fafsa.ed.gov
