

LIGHTSYMPOSIUM
WISMAR 2012

FUTURE OF LIGHT
AND LIGHTING
IN ARCHITECTURE

OCTOBER 03 — 06

The Department of Architectural Engineering at the Pennsylvania State University is an official Partner University for the Light Symposium Wismar 2012 Conference to be held in Wismar, Germany from October 3-6, 2012.

THE FORUM FOR ALL THOSE WHO SEE THE FUTURE OF LIGHT AND LIGHTING IN BUILDINGS AS CREATING SUSTAINABLE DESIGNS TO MEET THE NEEDS OF HUMANS

The Symposium will reflect the latest research results and findings on light in general and on the future of architectural lighting in particular.

The Symposium is an independent forum for all those concerned with the wisdom and experience gained from using light and colour in architecture as a means of supporting health or wellness strategies.
